Primary Examiner, Art Unit 3726

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Andrew Wilford on August 25, 2009.

The application has been amended as follows:

On line 6 of claim 5, “, in particular T-slots” has been deleted.

On line 4 of claim 6, “tool-holding” has been changed to “workpiece-holding.”

New claim 8 has been added as follows:

8. The machining apparatus according to claim 5, wherein the fixing elements are T-slots.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Braun '291 is representative of the closest art of record. Figures 1, 2, and 3 show an XYZ cutter 38 located above a removable table 23. The table rests on ledges 20, 21 on side walls 12. Each of the side walls has a recess 29, 30, for reception and mounting of various workholders for mounting and pivoting the workpiece about at least one axis. Figure 4 shows a chuck 40 and tailstock/center 41. Figures 5 and 6 show a magazine 42 holding four workpieces 43 that may be indexed about the axis of rotation. Figures 7 and 8 show another embodiment having a pivoting table 45 that also mounts a table 44 that pivots about a perpendicular axis. As discussed at column 6, lines 10-17, the table 23 and other embodiments may be used at the same time or attached and used alone on the machine. Each of the embodiments of figures 4-8 may be considered to be the “workpiece support” as set forth in claim 1. Claim 1 sets forth the limitation that the table must bridge the workpiece support and be firmly attached to the frame. While the table 23 of Braun is firmly attached to the frame, it does not bridge the workpiece support, and there is no teaching to so modify the table 23 of Braun '291.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

3. Claims 1-8 are allowed.

4. Any inquiry concerning the content of this communication from the examiner should be directed to Daniel Howell, whose telephone number is 571-272-4478. The examiner's office hours are typically about 10 am until 6:30 pm, Monday through Friday. The examiner's supervisor, David Bryant, may be reached at 571-272-4526.

In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office actions directly into the Group at FAX number to 571-273-8300. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a USPTO deposit account. Please identify Examiner Daniel Howell of Art Unit 3726 at the top of your cover sheet.
